The chart above represents the number of offenses for the past three years. The annual crime rate is determined by multiplying the number of offenses for the year by X (100,000 divided by the 2018 campus population of Y (students + faculty + staff + 1/2 of part-time/adjunct faculty)). This number is the annual rate of that particular offense per 100,000 persons.

students + faculty + staff + 1/2 of part-time/adjunct faculty = 78

$$Y = 319$$

$$X = 313.48$$
